9 Reasons Why You May Want or Need a Business Valuation in 2009

Many business owners mistakenly believe they only want or need a business valuation when they sell their business. In addition to estimating the selling price of your business, a business valuation is often used to resolve disputes related to estate and gift taxation, divorce litigation, bankruptcy, retirement planning, financial and tax reporting, subchapter S conversions, buy-sell agreements, simple personal financial management and many other business and legal purposes:

Marital Dissolution (Divorce)	Estate &amp; Gift Tax	Shareholder and Partnership
Your business is typically your largest	If you have a partnership / LLC	Buyouts and Disputes joint marital asset and the most	interests then the gifting of closely	If you or a partner/shareholder decide complex to value. A business	held stock necessitates an	to leave the partnership or offer an valuation will either be court	independent valuation, to provide an	equity position to someone else then appointed or voluntarily engaged, to	objective analysis as to the fair	a proper third-party valuation can facilitate a friendly and fair	market value of the business at the	assist in a quicker, fair and amicable distribution settlement.	time of the ownership transition.	transaction.
Buy-Sell Agreements	Subchapter S Conversions	Bankruptcy
Many buy/sell agreements require a	If you're planning to convert from "C"	Bankruptcy is a legal admission of the business valuation so that your or	to "S" or "LLC" corporate status, you	inability of an individual or company's their ownership will be transferred at	should have a valuation done as of	ability to meet and pay their liabilities.
fair market value. Agreements	the conversion date to determine the	Therefore knowing the bankruptcy between partners or shareholders	tax calculation for the IRS. If your	value of your business and its assets should be based upon an independent	company is sold prior to the ten year	is critical to the restructuring process business appraisal rather than a rule	holding period, there is a tax due on	and are influential to maintaining the of thumb formula because formulas	the built-in gain of value from the	confidence of your creditors' may yield an unrealistic value.	date of conversion.	committee or trustee.
Personal Financial Management	Commercial or Project Financing	Financial and Tax Reporting
Your business represents a typical	Increasingly local banks and lenders	Certain financial & tax reporting owner's single most valuable asset.	will request an independent market	situations necessitate an independent Despite this, most business owners	valuation prior to approving a small	valuation services. When your have no realistic concept of the true	business loan or credit line. A	company offers & issues stock options, market value. A business valuation	business valuation is a instrumental	or transfers or sells equity interests, a empowers you to make informed	tool to include in a loan package	valuation is required to report related critical decisions, such as proper	when approaching lenders to	compensation expense and the timing to pursue an exit strategy.	negotiate your rate and loan terms.	recipients to accurately report income.

FREE CONFIDENTIAL CONSULTATION

If you are planning for or suddenly find yourself in one or more of these situations, please contact us for a free confidential discussion to see if a business valuation is needed or required.